

POLICEMAN, DRUNK, FIRES SHOTS INTO BROOKLYN HOMES

Narrowly Misses Widower—
Held in $300 on Intoxication Charge.

Patrolman Daniel Mullin of the Hamilton Avenue Station was assigned in Gates Avenue Police Court to-day on a charge of intoxication and held in $300 bail for examination on Feb. 1. Although intoxication was the only charge preferred the record of the case shows that Mullin at 2 o'clock this morning fired three shots through two doors into apartments in the house at No. 217 Summer Avenue and that one of the shots narrowly missed a tenant, Frank Penna, widower living with two children and two grandchildren. The other tenant into whose apartment Mullin sent a shot is Fred Smith.

Both these men, when seen by reporters, said a number of policemen had "talked them out of" making a complaint of attempted felonious assault. The intoxication charge was made by Patrolman Frank Conklin of the Gates Avenue Police Precinct, who said he could make no further charge because he didn't see Mullin fire the shots.

Mullin went off post at midnight. He is twenty-eight years old and lives with his widowed mother at No. 619 Lexington Avenue. Shortly before 2 o'clock, in full uniform and, according to witnesses, crazy drunk, he reached the Summer Avenue apartment house on the second floor of which lives Miss Anna Ryan, to whom he is engaged to be married.

Stopping on the ground floor Mullin hammered on the door of Smith's apartment demanding the appearance of "McCarthy." Smith opened the door and when he noted Mullin's condition closed it and locked it. Mullin fired a shot through the door which imbedded itself in the wall of the room.

Going to the second floor he hammered on the door of Miss Ryan's apartment. By this time everybody in the house was awake and Smith was yelling for help from the front window of his flat. Miss Ryan pleaded with Mullin to go home.

According to the third floor Mullin fired two shots into Penna's apartment. Conklin arrived at that time and placed his fellow officer under arrest. Mullin pleaded to be allowed to go home but made no physical resistance. He was locked up in Gates Avenue Station over night and was suspended from duty this morning.

FORMER CIVIL JUSTICE ALEX S. ROSENTHAL DIES

Best Present Mayor Hyman for Nomination in 1905.

Alexander S. Rosenthal, who was Consul to Genoa, Italy, during the Cleveland Administration, and former Municipal Court Judge, died at his home, No. 2717 Mernald Avenue, Coney Island, shortly after last midnight, following a long illness from heart disease. Mr. Rosenthal was sixty-seven years old. He lived in the Eastern District of Brooklyn for twenty-five years. He was born in Budapest and brought to this country a baby.

From 1905 to 1915 Mr. Rosenthal was Municipal Court Judge. He was elected on the Municipal Ownership ticket after defeating the present Mayor, John F. Hyman, for the nomination. Later he ran on the Independence League ticket for District Attorney of Kings and was defeated.

He is survived by his widow and seven children—Norton, Joseph, Henry, Frances, Mary, Maurice and Sidney.

$1,000,000 HOSPITAL ANNEX.

An eight-story addition of brick, 50 by 100, will be built at a cost of $1,000,000 for the Roosevelt Hospital, which occupies the entire block at 59th Street and Ninth Avenue. Plans have been drafted by York & Sawyer, architects.

Nothing to Fuss Over if She Weds Her Son-in-Law

Business Arrangement, Says
Mrs. McDannold, Vice President of Women's Press Club.

It's a sort of business arrangement and nothing to make a fuss over, but she is going to marry her son-in-law to-day in New York, Mrs. Sarah Wright McDannold, a founder and a Vice President of the Women's Press Club, admitted at their home in Grantwood, N. J. George Uthe, the son-in-law, is about fifty and is employed here in the Deekman Cafe.

Mrs. McDannold's daughter, Uthe's wife, died a year ago. Mrs. McDannold lived with her daughter and her husband for years.

"Of course I know I'm old enough to be his mother," she said, "but I've been at the head of the household a great many years. In a way, we were business partners. It is the logical thing to do and there isn't any reason to make a fuss over it. We're going to town to-morrow and be quietly married at some court. I don't think there is anything very unusual about our being married. It's a sort of business arrangement."

Mrs. McDannold, in 1898, went to the Klondike and ran a newspaper, the editor of which had been jailed for abusing the British Government.

SAY THEY FOUND A STILL AFTER THE FIRE.

Enochio Maronetti, No. 2079 Bedford Avenue, the Bronx, was arrested this morning after a fire in his house had been put out. The charge against him is suspicion of violation of the Molotov-Cage law, for the firemen say they found a still in the cellar. Maronetti denied knowledge of it, saying he had rented the space to a man. He said he had never learned what his tenant was doing.
